

2015 Dahlia Noir Sierra Foothills

A deeply complex and captivating red wine of the very darkest grapes grown in our vineyard - Dahlia Noir tempts the eye with a rich garnet hue so mysteriously inky that it's almost black. This intensely flavored wine bursts with aromas of wild blackberry, blueberries with hints of cassis and toasty oak.

The silky mouthfeel and luxurious finish will linger on your palate - and in your memory. Dark and delicious Dahlia Noir is just the wine to pour when serving bold barbecued meats, wild game and other full-flavored fare!
